

Psalm 71:3-5 English Standard Version (ESV)

Intro: E A C#m A (Lead line ||: G# F# A | :||) 1 - 2 - 3 + - 4 + - 1 - 2 - 3 - 4

E                    A

Be to me a rock of refuge,
                  C#m                                    B
to which I may continually come;
                  E                                    A
you have given the command to save me,
                  C#m                                    A
for you are my rock and my fortress.

E                                    A                                    C#m                                    A Rescue me, O my God, from the hand of the wicked,
                  E                                    A
from the grasp of the unjust and cruel man.
                  C#m                                    A
For you, O Lord, are my hope,
                  C#m                                    B                                    E
my trust, O Lord, from my youth. Rescue me.
